

Summer Youth Internship Program Results 2021

Survey responses were collected at the end of the program on August 5th, 2021

Students in the Program: 104
Student Responses Received: 76

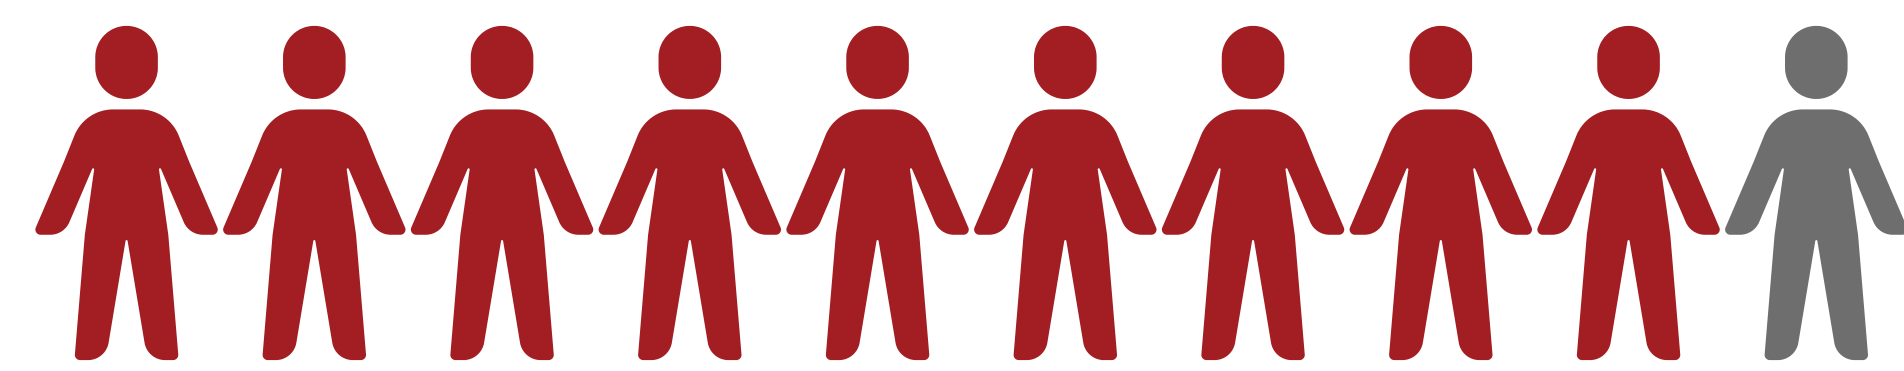

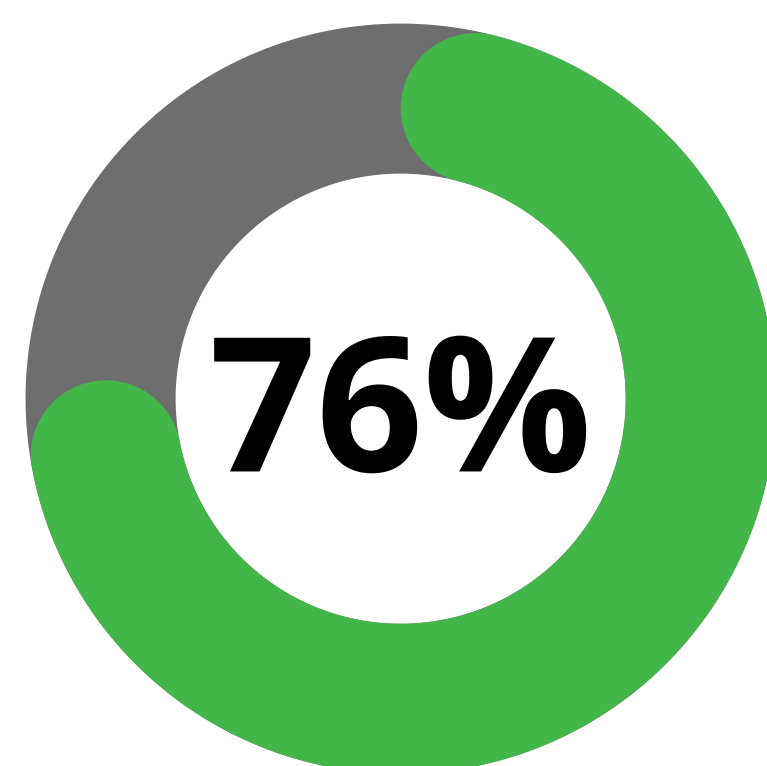

% of total interns in the program have registered or pre-registered to vote

There was a 44 percentage point increase seen at the end of the program. Interns reported age, citizenship, no access to proper documentation, and familial pressures as reasons they haven't registered or pre-registered to vote.

87%

of interns said voting is 'Very Important'

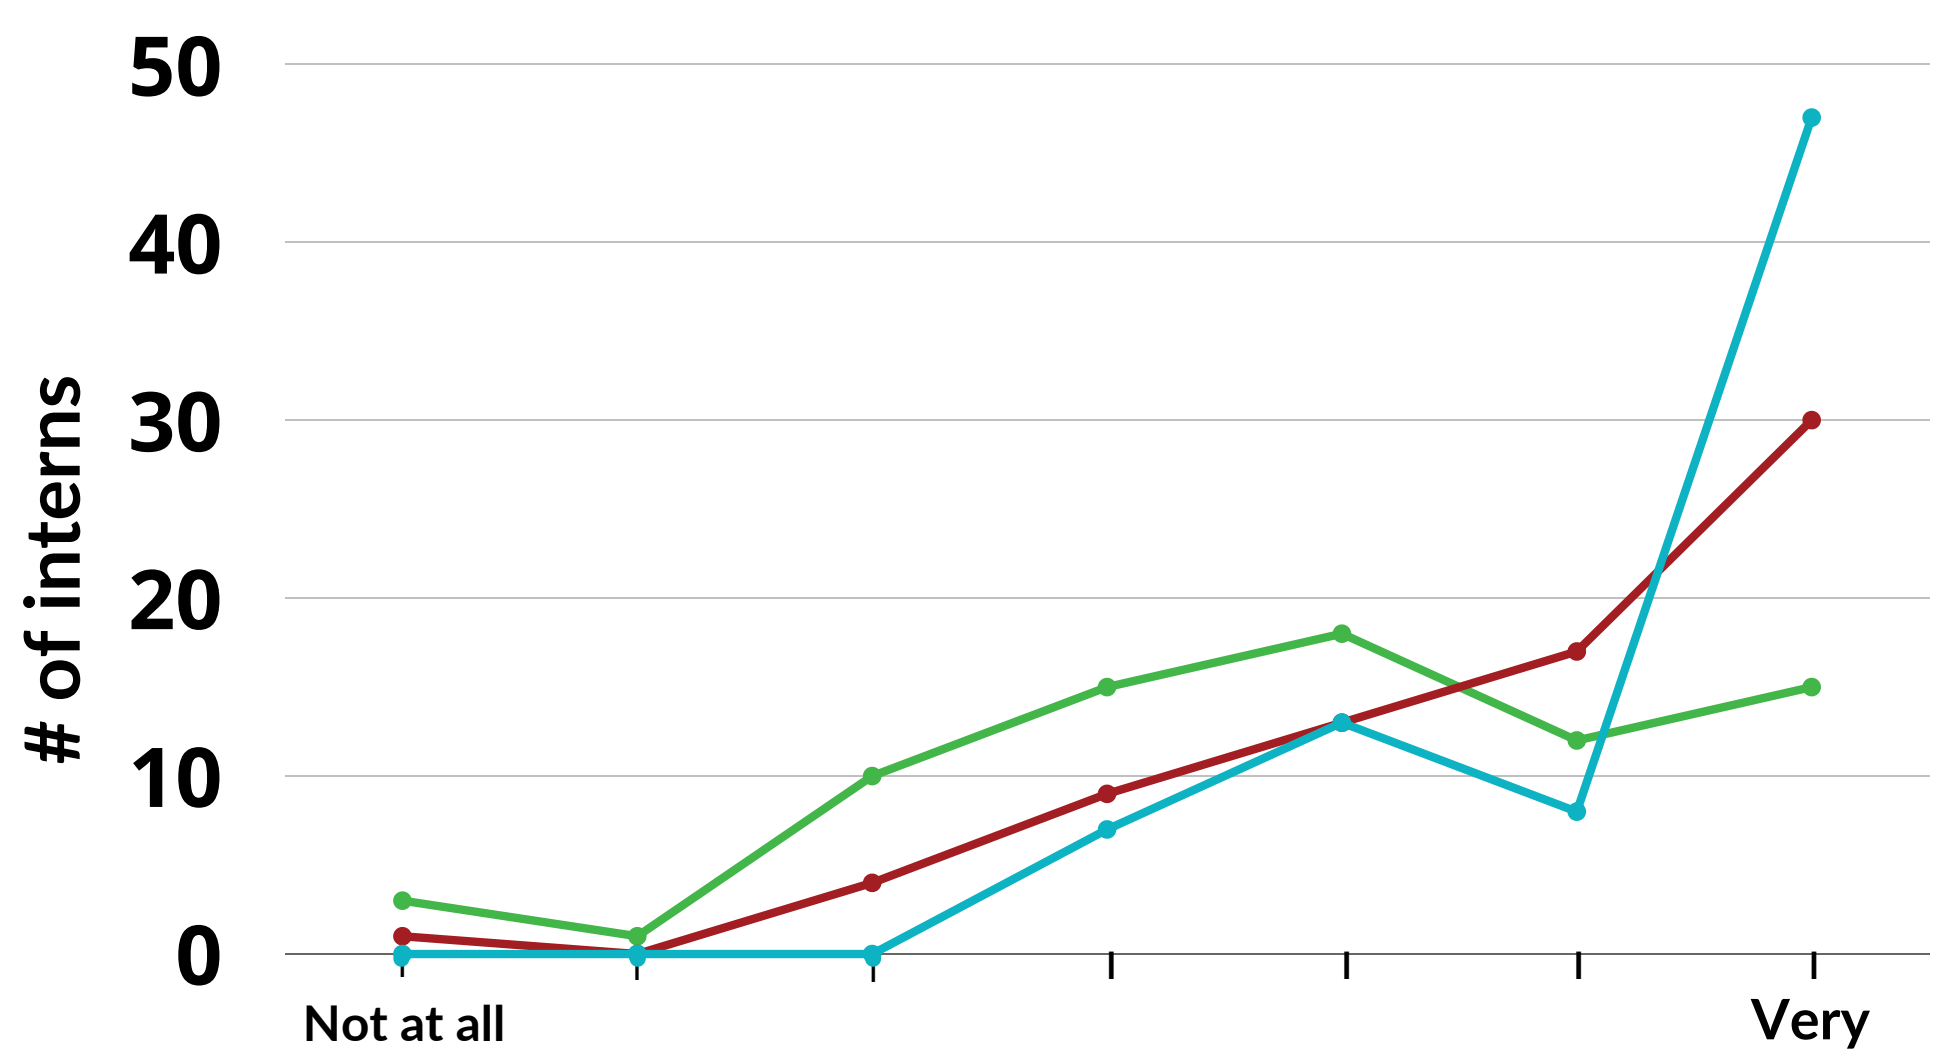

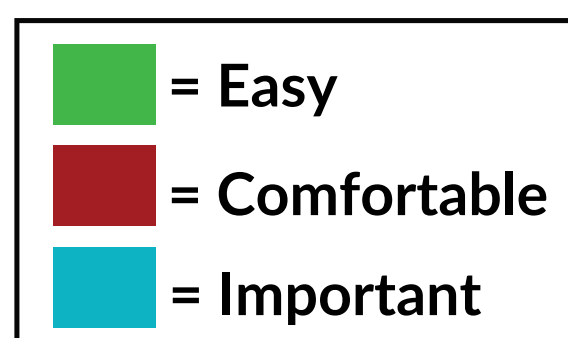

90% program retention rate

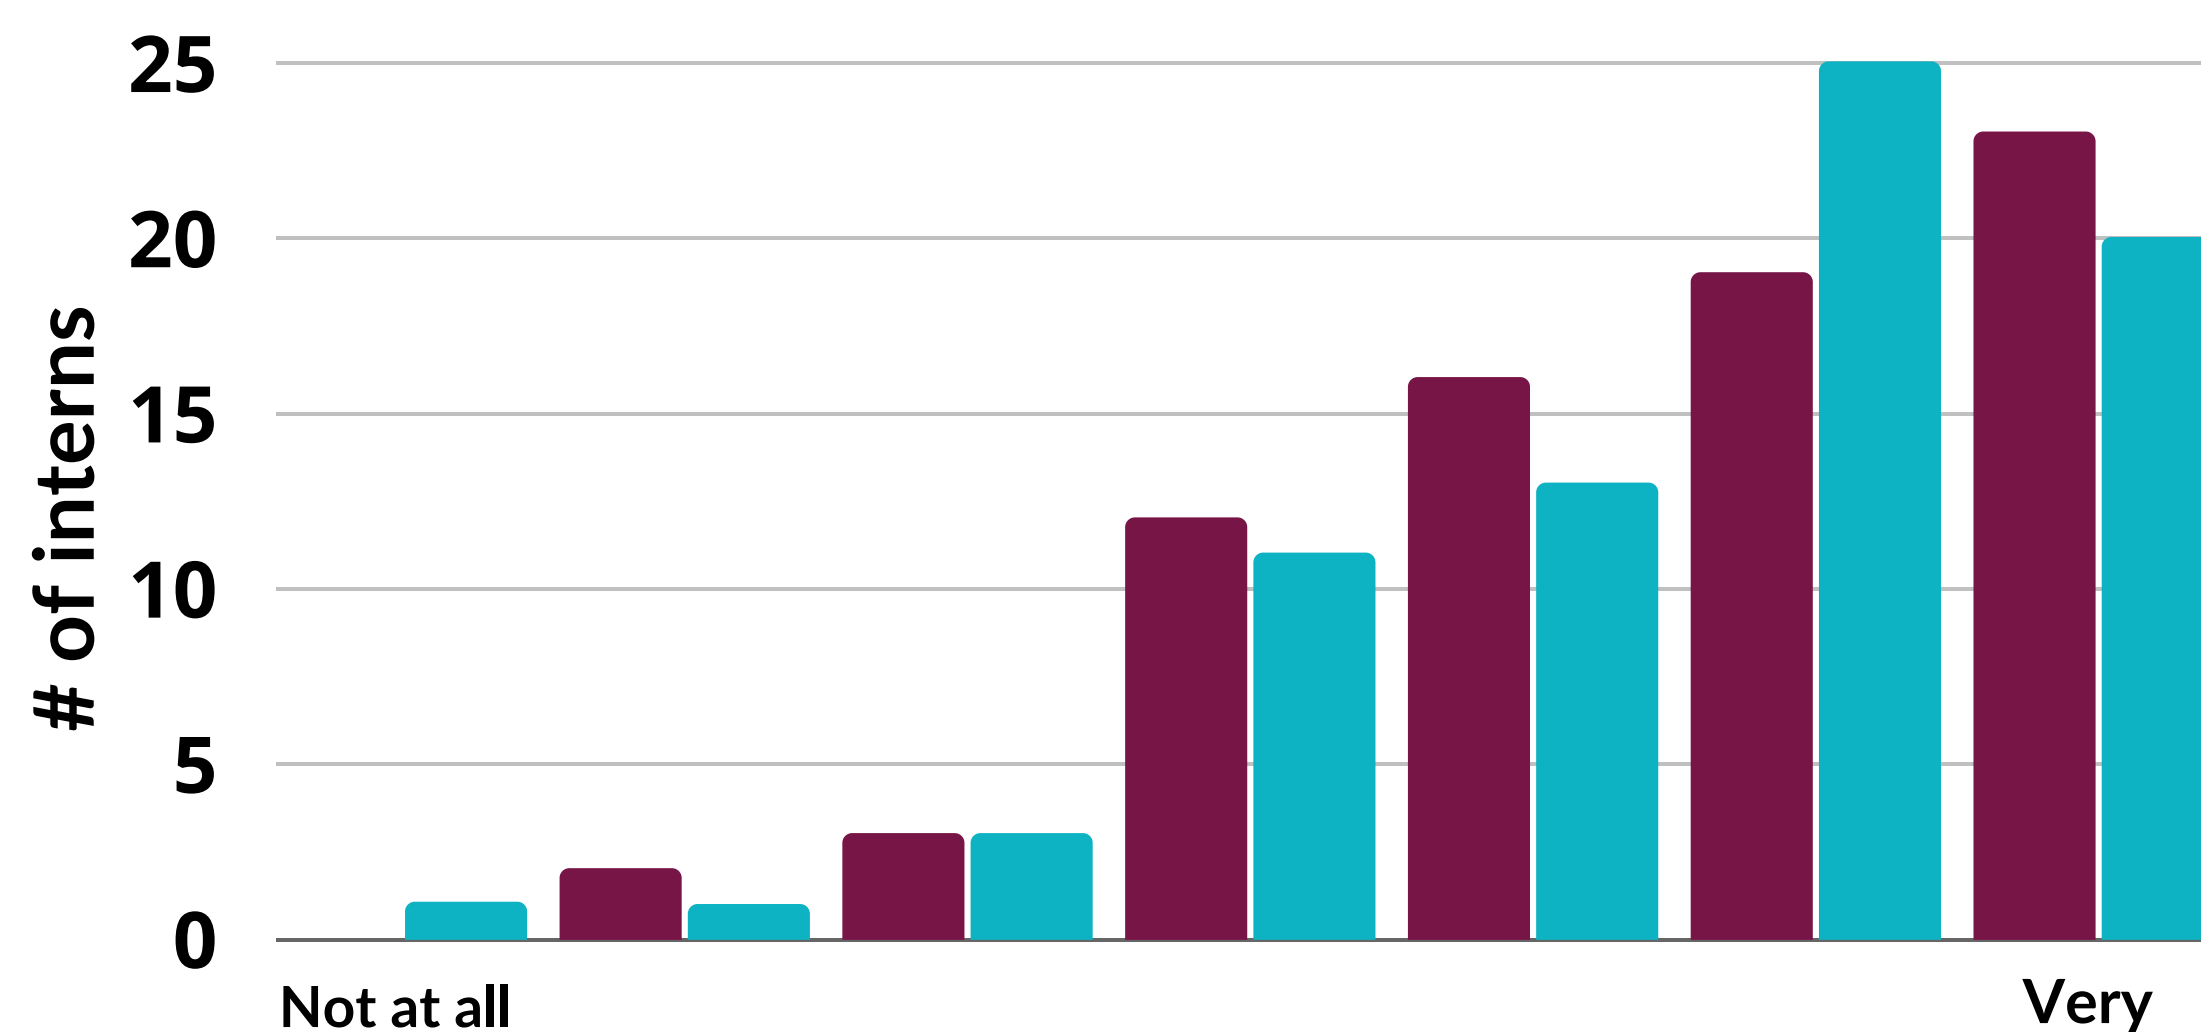

76% of interns said they would return next year

76% of interns agreed that students their age care about about the future, and are looking at ways to make an impact.

How _____ do you think communicating with others about civic engagement is?

How comfortable are you explaining National / Local government to a family member, friend, peer, neighbor?

Reporting by the numbers

- Nearly 3,000 recorded social media posts
- Over 75,000 unique views by followers on social media
- Over 540 intentional conversations regarding the importance of voting
- 57 local issues reported to local government
- 209 fact-checked claims from social media
- 33 citizenship tests taken with passing scores
- 90 petitions signed regarding a political, environmental, or social-issue related to the intern's interest
- 40 news articles read and reported on
- 15 voting plans created by voting age students for this year's local elections
- 65 interns researched all the elected officials representing them
- 3 op-eds written and sent to local prints
- 20 sample ballots researched for upcoming elections

Zip codes of participating interns throughout South Florida